

Sunday, 15th January 2017

Leading figures of Swiss sport at the CSI

The final day of the LONGINES CSI BASEL saw visits by the top management of cantonal and federal sport. Jürg Stahl, who took office as the new Swiss Olympic President on January 1st, 2017, came to Basel directly from Wengen to watch the Longines Grand Prix. Dr. Christoph Eymann, the outgoing sports minister of Basel, was another guest at the LONGINES CSI BASEL. The staff members honoured Dr. Eymann with the traditional CSI Award for his services to the LONGINES CSI BASEL.