

Thursday, 10th January 2019

World Class - not only in sports

Due to the new classification of the tournament to world cup status, the organisers of the LONGINES CSI BASEL decided that the infrastructure also needs a facelift.

The catering stalls at the head of the event hall are now made of massive wood. The whole construction can easily be mounted and dismantled.

The long-term ecological benefits are also not to be underestimated.

